MAPLE HARVEST CARRIES ON INDUSTRY FOUNDED BY INDIANS

Maple sap has been harvested in Canada since early French explorers along the St. Lawrence valley found Indians slashing maple trees with tomahawks, catching the sweet sap and boiling it in earthen pots to a thick brown syrup. Quebec, Ontario, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick produce nearly all the maple sugar and syrup in Canada. Every spring the time-honored traditions are repeated. Photo shows pails into which sap pours being emptied into a tank drawn by a sturdy team.

Fire Completely Destroys A. G. Spaeth Farm Home

The farm home of A. G. Spaeth, three miles west and one mile south of Vulcan, was completely destroyed by fire Saturday night while the occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Mote, were in Nanton.

The fire was first noticed about nine o'clock and nearby neighbors who rushed to the scene managed to save some of the living room furniture, but the blaze had a strong hold and nothing could be done to save the house or the rest of the contents. A water bucket brigade managed to prevent the flames from spreading to a nearby machine shed and other buildings, but the house itself was reduced to a pile of ashes.

It is understood that at least partial insurance was carried on the house and contents. The cause of the blaze is unknown.

After the business sessions of both meetings the members gathered in the new home for a delicious lunch served by the hostess, after which, on behalf of those present, Mrs. W. Oldfield presented Mr. and Mrs. Doug Smith with a lamp-table and magazine rack combined. Mr. and Mrs. Smith very suitably thanked their friends and extended to them invitations to visit often.

During the business session of the U.F.W.A. the sum of $10 was voted to the Cancer campaign, $5 of which was expense money generously given back to the local by Mrs. Budd. It was voted to send a $10.00 C-A-R-E parcel to the Long family, formerly of this district but now residing in England.

Amateur Nite Held at Brant

Contestants included Janet Oakes (song), Margaret Col-lison and Marlene Carr (piano duet), Bob Anderson and Ken Hamilton (song), Alta Young (piano solo), Bobby Emmelcamp (recitation), June Sproule (dance), Joan and Marion Auld (piano duet), Marjorie Hamilton (piano solo), Ted West (song), Fay Fletcher and Yvonne Walbaur (dance), Margaret Col-lison (piano solo), Stewart Walbaur (recitation), Ken Auld, Cliff Anderson and Bob Sellars (comedy song), Lyl Brown (piano solo), Ray West (recitation), Marlene Seales (song), Shirley Sellars (dance), Wilma Walbaur (piano solo), Alice Ginther and Joan Buehler (vocal duet).

Following the amateur show Hunter's Ramblers played for a dance, which was well attended.

Ladies' Auxiliary

The regular meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion was held Thursday, April 24th, with a satisfactory attendance. Mrs. Sales, the president, opened the meeting in the usual manner, after which the business session got underway, with Mrs. Marshall acting as secretary in the absence of Mrs. Miller. Among the letters read was one from the Provincial President of the Quebec Command of the Ladies' Auxiliaries asking for information regarding next-of-kin of Canadians buried in France. The letter, in full is carried elsewhere in this issue of the Advocate. Mrs. Schuler was welcomed as a new member and duly initiated. On the request of the regular secretary, who has been ill, Mrs. Marshall was named to act for the remainder of the year.

At the annual convention of I. O.D.E. held in Calgary, Mrs. R. C. Marshall province at recent said the organization is determined to get results in the survey being conducted in child and family welfare in the province.

W. Ritson-Bennett To Speak Here On Water Safety

W. Ritson-Bennett of Calgary, director of First Aid, Swimming and Water Safety for the Alberta Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society, will be the guest speaker at a public meeting of the Vulcan and District Cultural and Athletic Association in the basement of the I.O.O.F. hall, Wednesday, May 7, at 8 p.m.

The Association hopes to arrange for two or three persons from Vulcan to take the water safety course at Calgary or Macleod, with the object of teaching this course in Vulcan.

The constitution of the newly formed Association will be presented for approval at this meeting and it is hoped that there will be a good attendance.

Attention of Next-of-Kin

The following letter has been received by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Canadian Legion from Mrs. S. Sheriff, Provincial President of the Quebec Command. Inasmuch as it is felt that there may be others in the district to whom the contents would be of interest the Advocate takes this opportunity of publishing it.

"I recently received a request from l'Association France-Grande Bretagne for the addresses of the next-of-kin of Canadians who are buried in France. This information will be passed on to the attenders who are presently looking after the upkeep of the graves so that when necessary they can contact each other. It is thought that a good many Canadians will be visiting France during the course of the next year and it is the intention, due to the lack of hotel accommodation, that those visiting the graves will be looked after by the attenders whose homes have not been bombed, and further that these attenders will act as guides. The information required is regimental number, rank, name of cemetery where interred, also relationship.

Form Vulcan and District Cultural and Athletic Ass'n

Will Co-ordinate and Promote Athletic and Other Activities In Town and District

The Vulcan and District Cultural and Athletic Association was formed at a meeting in the Canadian Legion rotunda Wednesday evening, April 23rd. In the absence of Dr. G. M. Carson, J. M. Jamison acted as committee chairman and J. L. Findlay acted as secretary.

Considerable discussion took place on whether or not the Association should embrace cultural as well as athletic activities and it was finally decided that the Association should promote and encourage both, rather than concentrate on athletic activities.

Aims and Objects

The thirty some persons present were mostly delegates of various lodges and clubs in the town, and it was decided by motion that only such authorized delegates have power to vote at meetings of the Association. An outline of the aims and purpose of the Association, as follows, was endorsed by the meeting and the executive was named as a committee to prepare a constitution for presentation at the next meeting.

Aims—

1. To co-ordinate, finance and promote all sports, cultural and athletic activities for organizations and individuals of Vulcan and district applying for such help or participation. Emphasis to be placed on promotion of children's and young people's activities.
2. To promote a better class of sports and sportsmanship.
3. To prevent overlapping on equipment, dates, schedules, etc.
4. To promote better health.
5. To promote leadership and leaders.

Organization—

1. Central executive of ten, composed of the president, vice-president, 2nd vice-president, secretary, treasurer and a finance committee of five.
2. Each phase of activity to be under a director, with as large a group working under him as desired; the director only to deal with the central committee.
3. The Central Executive only to vote on all money matters.
4. Public meetings to be held quarterly to plan activities for the next season.
5. The central executive to meet monthly at a date to be set by that group, with the president or vice-president and secretary having power to call a special meeting of the executive at any time.
6. The board of directors, comprising the directors of all activities, to vote on all except money matters.

Equipment—
The Association to purchase and control all equipment, which will remain the property of the Association at all times.

Officers Elected

The meeting elected the following officers: Dr. G. M. Carson, president; J. L. Findlay, vice-president; Ross Walker, 2nd vice-president; Roy Fulton, secretary; M. R. Morrison, treasurer. Those named to the finance committee are as follows: E. G. McPherson, John Mitchell, J. M. Jamison, Mrs. F. Mensinger, J. Majakey.

bers and friends with a view to having this information sent to me with the least possible delay in order that it may be sent to this organization, who, in turn, will hand the information over to the attenders who are looking after the graves of our loved ones in such an efficient manner."

Address all correspondence to: Mrs. S. Sheriff, 6582 Third Avenue, Rosemount, Quebec.

Advocate Subscription To Be $2.50 Per Year

Continued increases in operating costs have made it necessary for the Advocate to advance its subscription rate to $2.50, beginning June 1st, 1947. The new $2.50 rate has already been adopted by the weekly newspapers at High River, Macleod, Claresholm, and Nanton. The Advocate regrets having to take this step, but the cost of newsprint alone has risen more than one hundred per cent. since 1941.

All subscriptions now in effect will continue to their normal expiry date and new or renewal subscriptions paid in May will be accepted at the present rate of $2.00 per year.

It Isn't Your Town—It's You

If you want to live in the kind of a town like the kind of a town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long, long hike. You'll only find what you left behind For there's nothing that's really new, It's a knock to yourself when you knock your town— It isn't your Town—it's You. Real towns aren't made by men afraid. Let somebody else gets ahead, When everyone works and nobody shirks You can raise a town from the dead. And if while you make your personal stake Your neighbor can make one, too, Your town will be what you want to see; It isn't your Town—it's You. —Paisley (Ont.) Advocate

Dr. David Nicol Elected President Golfers

Dr. David Nicol was elected president of the Vulcan Golf club at the annual meeting held last Thursday evening, April 24th, in the Legion Hall. R. J. Buehler was named vice-president and C. E. Marsh was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

The chairmen of various committees are as follows: Grounds, Claude Brodick; membership, Mrs. Winnie Elder; entertainment, Mrs. Mabel Robinson; tournament, P. R. Weber.

Fees for the 1947 season were set at $7.50 for men, $10.00 for family, $3.00 for ladies and $2.00 for students.

An active season is anticipated by the club and plans are already underway to hold a mixed open tournament early in June.

Latest Spring Since 1920?

Unless the mood and manners of the weatherman change very quickly for the better, the 1947 season may rival that of 1920 for late seeding. As day follows day with flurries of rain or snow, and very little mild drying weather, the farmers are beginning to hark back to 1920 for comparison. In that year it was between May 11 and May 15 before there was general land work. It was much more serious then because it was all horse-power, but at that a fine crop was harvested.

Some field work is started over the district, but it is not yet general and on some farms last fall's uncompleted harvest is still to be threshed or combined.

But hope still lingers that one of these days, the sun will come out mellow and strong to warm up the soil.

IMMIGRATION

BRIGADIER General Hornby has long been an advocate of immigration plans for Canada, and a recent pamphlet by him advances substantial arguments for admitting new settlers. In one chapter he says that it has been made clear by the Federal Government that new immigrants will not be directed to provinces in which the governments do not wish to receive them.

That is good news, if faithfully observed. It has been evident that plans for new settlers seem to involve mainly settlement in western Canada. Government ministers in urging need of more settlers state that the great majority of these should be placed west of the Great lakes. This has been the policy followed by the senior government since the beginning of this century. They blithely invite European immigration, and then pass it on to the western provinces for assimilation and Canadianization.

What has never been stressed sufficiently is that this policy of introducing large scale non-English-speaking immigrants into western Canada has imposed a tremendous responsibility on western provinces. The school teachers of the west for the past thirty or forty years have carried the main burden of Canadianization. This contribution which has been made to Canada by the school teachers of the west should be publicly acknowledged in the House of Commons. Their patient, often discouraging labor, perhaps in uncongenial surroundings, has Canadianized none too promising elements of our society in the space of one generation. Our western Universities give proof of the urge for advancement which is firing young people from so-called "foreign" settlements. It is not the governments which have supplied the spark for this fire. It is the school teacher in daily association.

And since the ultimate test of true citizenship seems to be reckoned by response to call of war, the melting pot of Western Canada showed up outstandingly in the last war. The fact that Western Canada has been able to impregnate these non-English speaking peoples with Canadian ideas and ideals so soon is a minor miracle accomplished mainly by the underpaid school teacher and to lesser degree by the churches and by the friendliness of rural organizations. Does Ottawa realize this, and do our provincial governments?

It is stated that the federal government will not place new settlers in provinces in which the governments do not wish to receive them. This puts quite a responsibility on the provincial government. If the federal government is inclined to admit special sects and communal groups into Canada, what will be the attitude of the Alberta government? Surely experience will prompt Alberta to firm refusal of any such settlement. In fact Alberta's experience in this respect should be a guide to the federal government in regard to any such future admittance.

Again there are questions of health and adaptability which the Alberta government must keep in mind. Wasn't it in the twenties that there was protest against further immigration into Alberta on the ground that our mental hospitals were being overcrowded with new coming settlers who could not adjust themselves to this country? And another angle which presented itself during depression years was the relative ability of different races to fend for themselves.

Stamina, adaptability, assimilability, high standards of health, are questions which must be considered in welcoming new settlement. The Alberta government must have much data on hand which can serve as a rough guide in accepting its quota of new immigrants. It is this province which will have the responsibility of Canadianization.

to lie down and bleed a while then rise to fight again (if need be.)

She saved others; herself, she could not save, from burdens almost as grievous as those that defeated nations know. Herself short of food, she has to feed her zone of the country that brought on both wars. To make matters worse the Jews who celebrated with joy her acceptance of a mandate over Palestine after the first war are using the gangster methods learned in American cities to murder her soldiers and bring her administration of the mandate into disrepute. To this end they have the financial aid of American Zionists while all she can count on is advice from the American President.

Interviewed about the demolition of Heligoland, the Mayor of a nearby town expressed indignation and declared that Germans would never forget or forgive. If they feel that way about it, it illustrates their mentality again and justifies the demolition. At a time when Britain did not suspect their war-like disposition and intention, the government of Lord Salisbury ceded Heligoland to them in return for German recognition of Zanzibar which they proceeded to fortify as a naval, especially submarine, base, of no value to them except as a threat to Britain. It was so used in the first World War and why Britain did not demolish it after that was always a mystery.

The threat by the Jewish underworld to blow up the chief port of Palestine and raid its banks and other business places was Irgun Zvai Leumi boasting: in other words, if one wanted to be flippant about so serious a matter, it was only Haifa-lootin' talk.

Vancouver, children went on a buyers' strike last week refusing to pay 8 cents for candy bars. They stuck to their self-denial too, and refused to eat the bars that their weaker minded parents bought.

What Do You Think?

Is it not true that the Bible, if taught alone without any human opinions, would make just Christians, who in turn, if not divided by love for various men and systems, would form just one commune called the body of Christ, household of God or church of Christ which is the assembly or congregation of Christ; and if there were such a unity of affections to Christ among God's people that we would be but one people, could we not give to the inquiring world a clear and direct answer to their questions concerning salvation? Do you not think that men would take heed and submit themselves to the sovereignty of the Almighty God?

Increase in Subscription Price

Commencing June 1st, 1947, the subscription rate of the Vulcan Advocate will be advanced from $2.00 per year to $2.50 per year in Canada. It has been the wish of the publishers to maintain the old rate, but never-ending increases in the cost of paper, to the point where it is now more than double the 1941 cost, and substantial increases in practically all other overhead charges have made it unavoidable if we are to continue to publish a creditable newspaper. The $2.50 rate has already been adopted, by the other weekly newspapers in this section of the province, including the High River Times, Macleod Gazette, Claresholm Local Press and Nanton News.

THE ADVOCATE

Items From Bob Edwards' Inimitable "Eye Opener"

In the High River Eye Opener of July 16, 1903, Bob Edwards indulges in inconsequential chatter suitable to the languorous summer season. He considers playing of "God Save the King" after meetings a complete waste of time. Then he draws aside the veil, to explain in detail how the Great Editor whiles away the hours in the little village of High River—not purposeful, nor admirable, but probably typical.

High River Eye Opener

(July 16, 1903)

Local Chit Chat

Fresh tomatoes, cucumber, celery and lettuce in the stores. We can all live high.

There's talk of a $60,000 grain elevator in prospect for High River.

Major G. C. Ross has returned to High River after an expedition into the Sudan.

Five pounds Shirriff's marmalade 40 cts., celery 8 cts. a lb.; shirts 50 cts., towelling 4 cts. a yard; flannellette blankets 50 cts. pair.

J. Lee, M.R.C., V.S., of England will start as veterinary in High River.

Richard Cowell is in from the hills to take on the Okotoks jim-jammy-hoodlum-politico freak meeting Tuesday evening.

The school is opening at Tongue Creek. Miss Dora Shaw, a popular young lady will be conducting the school.

Mrs. J. Matheson came down on Tuesday to arrange the domestic end of the new hotel. Mr. Matheson will come down this week and the hotel will soon be in full bloom. More eye-openers.

A meeting of Okotoks politicians is said to have been held in Boyce's hall with the audience composed mainly of Dick Broderick.

God Save the King

A citizen approached us on the street the other day and said he quite approved of our remarks regarding the playing of the National Anthem at the close of theatrical performances. "It doesn't sound like 'God Save the King' at all," he said. "It sounds more like 'Get the hell out of here—the show's over.'"

Ho Hum — Another Day

A certain curiosity having been expressed as to how the editor of the High River Eye Opener spends his time in the charming little burg, we beg to state that he rises every morning contemporaneously with the opening of the bar. After necessary restoration, he communes awhile with Thomas Baird or scriptural subjects.

This makes him a new man, and been erroneously thought of (as well as called) agricultural subsidies. The farmer has been opposed to the subsidy policy but in 1945 the Canadian Federation of Agriculture stressed the need of retaining the milk subsidy for health reasons.

When feed grain from the United States was closed to the eastern farmer, he turned to the west for supplies. To obtain this at a reasonable price the Canadian Government inaugurated the free freight policy from the head of the lakes to destination. With the drawback in effect on feed grains and light freight charges as well as being near seaboard gave the eastern producer an advantage over the Alberta farmer. The new proposal of increased prices of coarse grains retention of the freight policy and elimination of the drawback will put the Eastern and Western farmer on nearly the same basis and retain for the west a market for feed grains.

Income Tax

Writing of a report on the Post War Tax policy, the Financial Post has this to say:

"In tax reduction this report lays emphasis on the personal income tax, and with that emphasis most Canadian wage and salary earners will be in agreement. With adequate allowance for depreciation and maintenance most corporations have some safeguard against excessive taxation, but as the authors of this report point out, the individual taxpayer has not. Under present high rates he has no opportunity for providing for his own old age or of saving enough to start a business of his own."

"But while stressing that as much reduction as possible should be made in personal income tax, the report rightly insists that there be no narrowing of the tax base. Even if he only contributes a few dollars a year that man will be a better citizen and take more interest in government conduct than the man who contributes nothing."

The Beaver Camp ranch, which formed part of the Oxley ranch holdings west of Stavely has been sold to Corbin Bros bought the ranch and Warren Cooner bought the other half. Mr. Cooner also purchased the "25" brand. This ranch was at one time owned by the late W. R. Hull.

Down on The Farm

(By "Happy Jack")

Spring once more is around the corner and farmers are preparing to plant their crops. Conditions as they are will necessitate some changes in plans. With acres under water, changes in government policy are recommended in price increases in oats, barley and flax and shortages of some seed grain. This leaves the farmer in a dilemma. The probable result is that there will be no radical change in total acreage with the weather the controlling factor.

For some time we have been living with or under controls, and the lifting of them is causing uneasiness among the farmer. It was a long struggle after the depression to regain prices for agricultural products that would be somewhat comparable to the costs of production. The farm groups received stabilization in prices of their products with favor when long term contracts were negotiated by the government. With controls being lifted and sharp increases in production costs it is inevitable that pressures must be used to secure equitable price returns. Without controls the vicious cycle will again be in operation.

With increased prices for oats and barley it is doubtful that hog production will be increased extensively this year. The elimination of the drawback to the feeder at the end of this crop year will put the producers of feed grains who raise their own live-stock on an equal basis with the feeder.

The lifting of subsidies on agricultural commodities will give the consumer the privilege of having the full effect of what he buys. Too many times in the past they have

"Empties" Still Eluding Capture

Authorities at Deliveries Limited, agents for the Brewing Industry, said today that the co-operation of rural residents is essential to the success of their search for E. B. Bottles who escaped from work recently.

The recapture of E. B. Bottles, alias "Empties," is imperative, if the brewing industry is to maintain its normal output.

Anxious to extend their search for "Empties" to every part of Alberta, authorities at Deliveries Limited said anyone apprehending "Empties" can count on the co-operation of freight agents who, upon apprehension of the fugitive, will arrange escort from rural centres. Freight charges will be paid by Deliveries Limited, so be sure to ship "Freight Collect."

A reward of 20 cents per dozen is offered the person or persons responsible for the capture of Bottles. Rewards will be paid by return mail, as soon as Deliveries Limited take Bottles into custody.

We have Lots of Power BUT...

We need insulators, transformers and wire—lots of them to complete the extensions planned months ago. Our suppliers would like to provide them too, but production simply can't meet the demand.

All three are prime necessities in providing new services. We want those who are waiting for electric service to know that poles are being set, wire strung and transformers installed just as fast as they can be obtained.

Our job is to bring you the advantages of economical and dependable electricity. We are eager to supply it to you and promise that we are doing all in our power to do so with the least possible delay. Your understanding and co-operation will be greatly appreciated.

CANADA'S TEXTILE INDUSTRY is not generally regarded as being anything very exciting. It is true that in normal peace-time years textiles led all other industries in employment and wages paid. But that means we are just a part of regular daily living in Canada. It makes us about as exciting as a kitchen table.

DURING THE WAR, Canada's hundreds of textile plants turned out millions of yards of urgently-needed supplies. Today we are working hard to catch up with the heavy and growing civilian demands of the post-war. We provide thousands of jobs to Canadian citizens at new high wage levels. True, these factors do not seem exciting but it is nice to know that we have a place in Canada's way of living. A kitchen table may not be exciting but it is important to the household.

Veterans Land Act Problems Answered

A "complaint and answer" article from the Dept. of Veterans' Affairs deals with some of the more common complaints in connection with administration of the Veterans' Land Act. Small holdings are not dealt with in this article.

In the matter of a woman veteran married to a veteran seeking settlement, one complainant says it is unfair for the director not to qualify the wife for V.L.A. and allow the husband to use his re-establishment credit which is normally larger than his wife's. But the Department states that a woman veteran married to a veteran is now on exactly the same basis as the ex-member of women's services who marries a civilian. If a favorable decision is arrived at the ex-service woman who marries a veteran will be qualified under the V.L.A., providing the husband is of satisfactory type with knowledge of farming or whatever enterprise he is engaged in. The husband will then be able to use his re-establishment credit.

Complaints that houses built under program of V.L.A. is too slow, brings reply that this is only an emergency response of V.L.A., but 2408 homes have been built under V.L.A. with 2555 more under way. On Dec. 31 nine out of ten houses embarked upon have been built.

Complaints that houses built under V.L.A. are too expensive brings reply that total cost of project houses includes cost of land (half acre up to one acre is compared to city lots) cost of building roads, water mains, sewer mains or septic tanks, drainage, grading, etc.

The total cost of these services is from $600 to $1200 per unit, and must be added to house costs. General average house cost compares favorably with other houses being built.

"Why does the Veterans Land Act insist that the veteran's wife be suitable?" The answer is that in Canadian farming the housewife must be a real helpmate. Rural living will not bring success unless the wife is suited to it.

Another complaint is that it takes too long to settle a man under V.L.A.

It is pointed out that the land must first be appraised, and in few parts of Canada is it possible to appraise land in winter, so in the winter of 1945-46 a backlog of appraisals accumulated. Land inspection is insisted on in veteran interest. Another cause of delay has been in securing title. In many cases the title is not entirely clear, and the director must deliver to the veteran an unclouded title.

It is claimed that sufficient progress is not being made. But the department states that on Dec. 31, 1945, there had been 13,602 properties appraised. By Dec. 31, 1946, there had been 35,987 appraised and 24,177 had been approved for purchase. On Dec. 31, 1946 there had been approval given under V.L.A. to 22,492 veterans. Most of these were in 1946 in order to give a better chance to men who had served overseas.

A further complaint is that under the small holding scheme it isn't possible for a man to hold a job in town and work a minimum of two or three acres. The reply is that the V.L.A. was not intended as a housing scheme, but for veterans who are land-minded, and wish to augment their income with part time agricultural pursuits. It is indicated that the majority of veterans under small holdings do not consider 2 or 3 acres too much, because the average small holding is 4.75 acres in size.

Elizabeth Is 21 Years Old

Princess Elizabeth, heir presumptive to the British throne, celebrated her 21st birthday at Capetown, South Africa. In her Empire wide broadcast, she dedicated her life to the service of "our great Imperial family" and urged that youth go forward in lifting the burdens from the elder people who have borne much in recent years.

Princess Elizabeth was showered with gifts. Her income now rises from $24,000 to $60,000 yearly. The announcement of her engagement to marry the former Prince Philip of Greece was not made on her birthday, but is expected. The prince has renounced his claim to the Greek throne to become a British subject and is Philip Mountbatten.

The South African government presented her with a necklace of diamonds, valued at $400,000. Other gifts of diamonds were received from many sources. The Girl Guides of England presented a gift of value of $10,000. Numerous valuable gifts of other nature were given from South Africa and other parts of the Empire.

It is marked through how brings 25% more income than through straight sale of grain.

Evil Result of High Tariffs

(By H. G. L. Strange, Searle Grain Co.)

If all the evils that upset the people of the world were added together in one scale of a balance, and tariffs were put into the other scale, it is probable that the latter would weigh down; for tariffs obstruct the trade and commerce of the world, and obstruct the ready exchange of the badly needed farmers' foodstuffs for the goods and commodities that foreign people make.

The League of Nations was of the opinion that the high tariffs set up by the United States and Canada in 1930 had a great deal to do with bringing on the severe world depression in the 1930's which brought with it unaided surpluses and such low prices to farmers, such unemployment, hardship, desolation and hunger to the whole world.

This April there will be an international conference called to see what can be done to have the countries of the world reduce these hampering and evil high tariffs. Whether it succeeds or not, there is nothing whatever to stop Canada from reducing her own tariffs, so encouraging a greater importation of foreign goods into Canada, so automatically encouraging a greater sale to foreign people of our wheat and other agricultural products.

UNPAID HELP

(Winnipeg Tribune)

A farmer's wife may do all the work in connection with poultry, including delivery eggs to the candling and grading station. Yet the cheques in return for eggs or poultry are credited to her husband's income. Nor may he pay her for her work and charge the amount as an operating expense. Obviously, this is unfair and the income tax regulations should be changed to provide for payment of up to $250 to the farm wife chargeable as an operating expense.

Whitton-Cross Feud on Babies

Some stir has been created in Alberta by the charges made by Dr. Charlotte Whitton of Ottawa that the provincial welfare branch of the Dep't of Health is being very badly administered. It was her suggestion some weeks ago that the Provincial I.O.D.E. conduct a study into child welfare administration. Dr. Cross, Minister of Health, objected to turning over records to Dr. Whitton and hostility has been reaching great heights.

Dr. Whitton has charged that babies born in Alberta have been going to United States people for adoption at the rate of one a week.
She said that babies listed in official reports as transferred because the mother was unable to support have been (1) "bartered" in cases before birth to American foster-parents; (2) exported with all expenses paid under escort of wife or friend of staff members of child welfare; (3) made available for quick adoption through the superintendents' declaration that he knows the infant's new home. It is charged that the Dept. has been content with sufficient information to satisfy the U.S. consul and a statement of the new parents' solvency.

It is charged that they have been moved to other provinces without the consultation that should prevail. She charged that in the past ten years about one in every ten of all adoptions have been outside Alberta.

Dr. Whitton said: "I am interested in helping the I.O.D.E. to keep Canadian children in British sovereignty and under the care of a responsible minister and department."

She charged that over a period of five years more than 70% of the children removed from their parents in this province are described as transferred because "mother unable to support." She is quoted as saying in this respect Alberta had the highest rate in Canada.

In reply one Dept. of Welfare official says that 76 children have been awarded to American couples out of 1716 babies placed for adoption in a three-year period. Most of these 76 were awarded American couples who at time of application were residing in Alberta and whose home conditions were investigated. This statement is reported to have been substantiated at the U.S. consular office in Edmonton.

But Miss Whitton still claims that the custom was going on before Americans came to Edmonton and is going on amongst families that were never in Edmonton.

Mayor Watson of Calgary said the public welfare agencies of that city compared favorably with similar ones in other cities and that full co-operation had been extended.

Miss Whitton said there was not one person of the Calgary welfare staff who is a graduate in social work, but admitted they were more humane than the attitude of the provincial staff.

Dr. Cross said Miss Whitton was just a talking machine, and that she never had any responsibility for child welfare administration.
He said that C. B. Hill, superintendent of child welfare, would no doubt flatly deny Miss Whitton's charge that babies had been exported to homes unqualified except in a financial sense.

But Miss Whitton continued the fight, by saying "They may deny but let them disprove them. It's going to be hard to smother the pasport records."

Deer Hunting With Trucks

A story in the Albertan tells of the transfer of deer from the Pincher Creek area to Olds. In this movement Ralph Siotte, president of the Olds branch of Fish and Game, and formerly of High River played a leading part.

Back in January Game Warden Thompson of Olds suggested a plan of moving the deer to Mr. Siotte, who enlisted the interest of other Olds sportsmen.

With permission of the Alberta Game Commissioner, Mr. Siotte set about organizing a party of deer hunters, with co-operation from Pincher Creek game wardens.

The first attempt was a failure. They spent 5 days in building corals and inventing lures, and stalking deer but the deer refused to be lured because a spell of mild weather had set in.

But round Feb. 21 the weatherman co-operated with colder weather, and the Olds sportsmen got word that two loads of deer had been trapped in Pincher Creek corals. So the big expedition was on, and to date there have been 154 deer transported by special truck from the Pincher Creek area to central Alberta. These include 19 bucks, 49 fawn and 88 does, almost all mule deer. They were fed for several days before being liberated. Some were released in Carstairs district, some round Didsbury and the majority round Olds. A number of business men and farmers sponsored the project. Movies of the expedition were taken, and quite a number of the deer appear to have become pets in the farm area.

Lee Nesbitt, son of Len Nesbitt of the Wheat Pool, and formerly associated with his brother on the Brooks Bulletin, has joined the staff of the "News of the North" at Yellowknife. Another member of the Yellowknife paper is Jack McCrea of the Hanna publishing firm.
